

19th Shangri-La Dialogue

The 19th Shangri-La Dialogue - Asia's premier defence summit - was hosted from June 10 to June 12, 2022, in Singapore after a two-year break due to the COVID-19 pandemic. This annual security dialogue is organised by the London-based International Institute for Strategic Studies. The dialogue saw participation of diplomats, officials and defence experts from across Asia. Japanese Prime Minister, Fumio Kishida delivered the keynote address to open the summit, where the region's most pressing strategic and economic challenges were discussed. This edition of CUTS ONW has hand-picked articles marking the highlights of this three-day meet.

How engaged was China at the Shangri-La Dialogue?  Mark S. Cogan            The Diplomat            June 16, 2022	China's presence and engagement in Singapore, while mostly hidden by posturing and confrontational rhetoric, is welcome and should be encouraged. China is currently at a delicate moment in its history, as it seeks to rein in international criticism and project power simultaneously. While Chinese President Xi Jinping has grown weary of criticism, bringing strong delegations to Western-style security fora could be a welcome antidote.
Shangri-La Dialogue 2022: The Paradox of Peace and Power  Hoang Thi Ha            Fulcrum            June 13, 2022	For Southeast Asian states, holding the middle ground between peace and power has never been more important, yet it will be ever more difficult. Where do Southeast Asian states stand in this paradox of power and peace? Constrained by limited budgets and the pressing need to address socio-economic woes, their ethos is more about achieving resilience rather than deterrence.
Foreign Minister attends 19th IISS Shangri-La Dialogue in Singapore            ColomboPage            June 13, 2022	During the meeting, Foreign Minister Prof. G.L. Peiris highlighted the economic crisis being faced by Sri Lanka and requested the support of the Government of Qatar, in a variety of ways. The Minister further requested the Deputy Prime Minister of Qatar to facilitate an early visit to Doha by Minister of Power and Energy Kanchana Wijesekera, and Minister of Environment Naseer Ahamed. The Deputy Prime Minister of Qatar informed the Minister that every possible assistance would be extended to Sri Lanka.
South China Sea stirs fears of Black Sea rerun as Shangri-La ends            Nikkei Asia            June 12, 2022	Speakers at Shangri-La Dialogue security summit traded rhetorical fire over territorial disputes in the South China Sea (Paywall) with superpower rivals China and the US seeking support for their positions. Biden and Ardern also opposed unlawful maritime claims and activities in the South China Sea that run counter to the rules-based international order, particularly the United Nation Convention on the Law of the Sea (UNCLOS).
